Published Every Weekday Afternoon.
Subscription: One Year, $5; One Month, 25 cts.
Single Copy, 1 cent.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1907.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

The fall millinery openings begin today in Barre. Hubby can prepare to loosen up for that new hat.

The Saturday half-holiday ends for this year with tomorrow. It will not be many years, however, before they will continue the year around.

The Bellows Falls Times is advocating the renomination of President Roosevelt. If the president hadn't so emphatically declared against another term for himself, the Bellows Falls contemporary would have a larger following in its laudable purpose.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Favors Proctor's Re-election.

Dr. W. E. Putnam, who was surgeon-general on Governor Bell's staff, writes to The Banner as follows:

"In your issue of Sept. 20th you quote from the Barre Times in part as follows: It was claimed by some two years ago that Governor Bell would have made a try for a second term against the field if Mr. Proctor had not been a candidate. I simply wish to state here in justice to Governor Bell that he not only did not seek a renomination, but had no desire for it.

"When this matter was being agitated a little by his friends, he told me that under no circumstances would he accept such an honor, even if tendered him (which he had no idea would be done) as for personal reasons he could not serve again. On the other hand, if Governor Proctor would be willing to accept a renomination, the Republican party

HULDAH SAYS:

"Nothing so changes the appearance of a room as a new Chair. It seems that everybody just wants to sit in it, too, even callers."

We're right in it with more variety in shape, form and style than you'd expect to find in one shop. The reason is, we are not an "agent." We are not pushing any particular make. There are so many good ones now that we prefer to carry a big variety. What does your head say to this?

would be showing sound judgment in paying him this compliment, as it is generally conceded, I think, that the last two executive administrations have been among the best the state has had in many years."—Bennington Banner.

"The Barre Times opposed Fletcher Proctor for governor last year. Proctor appointed the proprietor of The Times as printing commissioner, and The Times now says that Proctor has proved to be so much ahead of the average governor that he ought to be re-elected. Plain enough, isn't it?"—Jericho Press.

The Barre Times' suggestion that Gov. Proctor be renominated next year is a good one. He has made one of the best governors that Vermont has ever had, and his support for a re-election would be pretty near unanimous, outside of a few interests which think they have been more or less badly used because they could not have their own sweet way. Now let The Times use its eloquence in persuading the governor to accept a renomination. He has not, so far as known, declared against a second term.—Northfield News.

Evidently there will be something doing over in the second congressional district next year. Congressman Haskins says he will be a candidate for a fifth nomination, and the friends of Hon. Frank Plumley of Northfield say that it is now time, high time, that "Kit" gave way to their man who has done so on more than one occasion for him. Mr. Haskins has made a good record at Washington and Mr. Plumley is a man of strong ability. Then there is a bit of suggestion that Hon. Charles Prouty of Newport, of interstate commerce fame, may be put in the field. It may be real interesting over in that district next June.—Morrisville News.

What is this we hear that the Barre member of the railroad commission is said to be casting sheep's eyes at Congressman Haskins' patent leathers!—St. Johnsbury Republican.
